RISK WARNING

This Xtremcoin Website Risk Warning (“Risk Warning”) has been prepared for the purpose of warning Website User and Visitors about the current and potential risks of cryptocurrency transactions and investments executed through the website www.xtremcoin.com (“Xtremcoin Platform”; “Website”) which is operated by Geliyoo Bilişim Araştırma Geliştirme Sanayi ve Ticaret Limited Şirketi (“Xtremcoin”) located at Büyükdere Caddesi Yapı Kredi Plaza C Blok No:40-41 Kat:17 Ofis No: DO-01 Levent, Beşiktaş, İstanbul, 34330 and registered to Istanbul Chamber of Commerce with the registration number 898925.

Price Risk

The exchange of Cryptocurrency, like the other areas of trade, also carries significant risks. The values/prices of cryptocurrencies are fluctuating every other day. The exchange of Cryptocurrency is sensitive to irrational or rational information and loss of confidence. It is possible that the Cryptocurrency values increase or decrease at very high rates during the same day; even it means big potential gains, on the other hand, also might mean big potential loses.

Since the Cryptocurrency is not governed by a central authority, the value of the Cryptocurrency is based on the principle of trust; therefore, many reasons such as unexpected changes, a government restriction, competition from alternative currencies may suddenly reduce the value of Cryptocurrency.

Security and Risks of the System

The User or Visitor must ensure that it has entered the Website by using a secure computer. Otherwise, if the User Account is accessed through an unsecure computer, the Account has risks of exposure to cyberattacks and Cryptocurrencies have risks of theft. In such cases, Xtremcoin is not responsible. It is entirely under the responsibility of the User to prevent such security vulnerability.

Xtremcoin has taken all the technical and administrative precautions necessary to protect the system safety and works diligently to ensure that safety problems do not arise. However, in spite of these precautions; when actions are taken to harm Xtremcoin or attacks are organized, there is a risk of disruption in providing Xtremcoin services.

There is always the risk that malicious people perform transactions and prepare documents by using any technological tools, devices and similar products through various scanners in order to deceive the Users, third parties, institutions and organizations, to acquire illegally and to make a non-existing data look like existed.

The User must only send encrypted e-mail to ensure the security of their e-mail messages. The User is individually and completely responsible for all damages arising from sending unencrypted e-mails, there is nothing Xtremcoin can do about it and it has no responsibility.

Xtremcoin cannot control the security or the content of the information that passes over the network, and bring these system risks to the attention of the User or Visitor.

The User acknowledges and declares that it is aware that a transaction processed to blockchain system is irrevocable and cannot be canceled. The User makes a decision by taking this important issue into consideration while executing transactions. Xtremcoin cannot be held responsible for the matters that are irrevocable and arise from the nature of the blockchain.

Xtremcoin aims to service the User within the shortest time. However, there are always risks such as interruption, delay, failure or error of Xtremcoin access.

The Xtremcoin Platform may be temporarily suspended for maintenance or safety reasons. There is a risk that this situation may cause malfunctions in the trading process.
